

To write a poem

Task 1 – Read the poem below:

The Rise of the Wolves

*I have a Wolf in me.
Hunting stealthily
Guiding loyally, Intuitively sensing and Protecting bravely.*

*Our clan believes in respect, love and determination.
We rise together as one, fearless yet humble.
Protecting the spirit of water, the soul of the earth
We all have a Wolf in us.*

Think about the answers to the questions below:

What adjectives have been used to describe the characteristics of the Wolf Clan?

What's the role of the Wolf Clan?

What verbs have been used to describe the spirit of the wolf?

What adverbs have been used to describe the verb?

How have the verbs and adverbs been arranged?

(Answers on the last page)

Task 2 – Today, you are going to be writing a poem to represent a clan from the Stone Age.

Plan your poem. Decide which animal your poem is going to be about

Mild – choose a wolf

Spicy/hot – any Stone Age animal of your choice

Use the verb and adverb word bank to create a 'thought-shower' of adverb/verb pairs to match your chosen animal e.g.

Wolf

*loyally guiding stealthily hunting
intuitively sensing bravely protecting etc.*

verbs	adverbs
hunting	carefully
caring	quickly
watching	bravely
tracking	loudly
howling	loyally
guarding	cautiously
sensing	speedily
splashing	furiously
swimming	gently

Task 3 – Write your poem in your home learning books using the writing frame below so that it follows the structure of ‘The Rise of the Wolves’.
