

Tuesday 22nd September, 2020

To identify and use nouns, adjectives and verbs.

Watch the presentation <https://www.loom.com/share/57abccf7d91249dcb55055041619494f>

Costumes

- flamboyant headdresses
- vivid reds and vibrant greens
- flashes of scales and fins
- glistening golds

floats paraded through the street

Carnival

Music

- steel drums
- dancing to the rhythm
- calypso songs
- deafening
- roar of people cheering
- clapping
- stamping feet

Food

- juicy jerk chicken
- succulent calaloo
- scolding hot in my hands
- chopped coconuts

Senses

- overwhelmed by the crowds
- waft of spiced calaloo
- feel the vibrations of drums
- could hear the sizzle of pans
frying calaloo

Using the vocabulary above, write 10 sentences to describe children's carnival.

Underline the verbs in red, nouns in green and adjectives in blue.

To identify and use verbs, nouns and adjectives

Success Criteria

Adjectives and verbs are appropriate and effective.

Sentences start in a variety of different ways.

Adjectives, nouns and verbs are clearly identified in each sentence.

Challenges:

 Effective adjectives and a range of verbs.

Use a key to underline adjectives/nouns/verbs.

Start sentences in a variety of different ways.

Use different sentence lengths.

Effective adjectives and verbs.

Use a key to underline adjectives/nouns/verbs.

Start sentences in a variety of different ways.

Write simple sentence with focus on a range of adjectives.

Self-assessment

Identify the different word classes in the sentence below:

The orange feathers on the young girl's headdress caught the beaming sunlight as she paraded proudly through the streets.