

Mild errors.

After a long and tiring journey, Perseus got directions from the Grey Sisters and was given a sharp sword, a bright shield and a magic pouch. He wore the Cape of Invisibility on his head, making him as invisible as the wind. Perseus flew bravely onward in search of the dreadful Gorgons.

Spicy errors and example improvements

1. A long time ago, there was a king, as powerful as a god, who had a daughter called Danae.
2. From the clouds above, Zeus gazed down at Danae and fell in love.
3. Suddenly, the king, who was as evil as Hades, commanded Perseus to retrieve the head of Medusa.
4. Like a warrior, Perseus flew like a bird_to search for the Gorgons.
5. As quick as a flash, he stuffed the head into his magic pouch.