

Year 3 Week 5 English Day 4 – Edit

To edit a text

Mild – Task 1

Spicy – Task 1 and 2

Hot – Task 2 and 3

Task 1 – Fill out the gaps in these sentences using the word bank to help you. Re-write the paragraph in your home learning books.

VE Day was _____ on Friday 8th May this year. People celebrated this occasion by having street _____. This year, marked 75 years since _____ in _____. The _____ gave a speech on television on VE Day to address the _____ and mark this important milestone in _____.

Queen

history

parties

celebrated

Victory

Europe

nation

Task 2 – Rewrite these sentences and add the missing punctuation. (Full stops, capital letters, commas, inverted commas). Write in your home learning books.

1. friday 8th May marked 75 years since ve day the end of world war two in Europe
2. celebrations began straight away throughout britain with more than 1 million people partying in the streets
3. king george vi appeared on the buckingham palace balcony with prime minister winston churchill
4. bette told the bbc the atmosphere was electric you kissed and hugged everyone it was wonderful

Year 3 Week 5 English Day 4 – Edit

Task 3 – Read through this paragraph and correct any mistakes. Re-write the paragraph correctly in your home learning books.

Look out for spelling mistakes, homophones, missing capital letters and full stops.

CELEBRATING VE DAY IN LOCKDOWN

plans four street party parades and concerts to celebrat ve day on the 8 May had too be put on hold this year because of the coronavirus pandemic. however communities still managed to celebrate in lockdown People up and down the contry found creative ways off marking this importnt milestone in history while observing social distancing measures

ve day victory in europe day, was the day the Allied forces announced the surrender of germany This ended the second world ware in europe and took place on 8 may 1945

Answers

Task 1:

VE Day was celebrated on Friday 8th May this year. People celebrated this occasion by having street parties. This year, marked 75 years since Victory in Europe. The Queen gave a speech on television on VE Day to address the nation and mark this important milestone in history.

Task 2:

1. Friday 8th May marked 75 years since VE Day, the end of World War Two in Europe.
2. Celebrations began straight away throughout Britain, with more than one million people partying in the streets.
3. King George VI appeared on the Buckingham Palace balcony with Prime Minister Winston Churchill.
4. Bette told the BBC: “The atmosphere was electric, you kissed and hugged everyone, it was wonderful!”

Task 3:

CELEBRATING VE DAY IN LOCKDOWN

Plans for street parties, parades and concerts to celebrate VE Day on the 8th May had to be put on hold this year because of the coronavirus pandemic. However, communities still managed to celebrate in lockdown! People up and down the country found creative ways of marking this important milestone in history while observing social distancing measures.

VE Day, victory in Europe Day, was the day the Allied forces announced the surrender of Germany. This ended the Second World War in Europe and took place on 8th May 1945.